2023 CALL FOR PROPOSALS APPLICATION PACKAGE

<https://untf.unwomen.org/en/grant-giving/call-for-proposals/application-guidelines> or
<https://grants.untf.unwomen.org/Public/News>

The application package consists of

- Call for Proposals
- Annex 1 – Eligibility Checklist
- Annex 2 – Project Concept Form
- Annex 3 – Project Concept Budget Form & Budget Guidelines
- Frequently Asked Questions and tips for application writing
- Grants Management System Instructions

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA – SEE ELIGIBILITY CHECKLIST (ANNEX 1)

- 1 Civil society organizations with 5 years of experience working on violence against women and girls. On exceptional basis, 3 to 5 years can be accepted.
- 2 Legal status and registration (5 years)
 - For multi-countries applications, applicants also need to provide the legal registration documents of co-implementing partners in the countries of implementation.
- 3 Country coverage: countries and/or territories listed in the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development Assistance Committee's (OECD DAC) list of official development assistance (ODA) recipients.
1 to 10 countries.
- 4 Demonstrated capacity for operational, financial and human resource management
- 5 Appropriate measures to prevent and address Sexual Exploitation and Abuse and Sexual Harassment

International NGOs may apply on the condition that they clearly demonstrate their added value and intention to engage with and strengthen the capacities of local WRO/CSO partners on programming and/or coordination in a mutually enabling manner.

INELEGIBILITY CRITERIA

The following are NOT eligible to apply for a grant:

- ✘ Interventions in a country not listed in the OECD DAC list of ODA recipients.
- ✘ Organizations whose work and mission/vision statement do not focus on nor explicitly mention gender equality and the elimination of violence against women and/or girls.
- ✘ Organizations that do not have a legal status in the country or territory of implementation, and neither do any of its co-implementing partners.
- ✘ Government agencies or institutions.
- ✘ UN agencies or UN Country Teams.
- ✘ Private individuals and Private sector entities.
- ✘ Organizations currently implementing a UN Trust Fund to End Violence against Women grant (grantee and co-implementing partners).

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTS NEED TO BE SUBMITTED AS PART OF THE APPLICATION

-  1. Legal registration
-  2. Certified Financial Statements (2020, 2021, 2022)
-  3. Evidence of being a women's rights, women-led and/or constituent-led organization
-  4. Evidence of specialized knowledge and expertise on ending violence against women and/or girls (VAW/G)
-  5. Two references demonstrating a track record of working on ending violence against women and/or girls (VAW/G)

PARTNERSHIPS & IMPLEMENTING PARTNERS

Partnerships with smaller, local and grassroots women's and girls' rights organizations are encouraged.

- ✓ The organization applying as the lead applicant may work with co-implementing partners to complement its expertise and outreach capacity and build the capacities of women's rights grassroots organizations.
- ✓ The lead applicant can partner with a maximum of four co-implementing partners who may receive a portion of the funding.
- ✓ Partnership should be equitable and beneficial to these organizations.
- ✓ The lead applicant is entirely responsible for the management of the grant.

MULTI-COUNTRY PROPOSALS

Multi-country proposals will also be considered under this Call for Proposals (up to ten eligible countries - listed in the OECD DAC list of ODA recipients).

Multi-country proposals must clearly explain the added-value of the multi-country component and how it proposes impact beyond national-level.

While implementation of the project can cover up to ten eligible countries, an application should include no more than four co-implementing partners that will receive a portion of the requested funding.

FLEXIBILITY IN PROJECT IMPLEMENTATION

If a project receives a grant:

→ possibility to adapt the project and budget based on needs and crisis that may arise (in agreement with the UN Fund).

Ex: project revisions accepted due to COVID-19, conflicts or natural disasters.

→ To better respond to grantees' flexibility needs, the project duration has been increased to 4 years.

Identify as many risks as possible and plan for mitigation measures at the proposal writing stage !

THE SELECTION PROCESS

The selection process is very competitive.
In 2022, 24 applicants received a grant, out of 1609 applications.

TIPS TO DEVELOP A SUCCESSFUL APPLICATION

1. FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS AND PROVIDE SPECIFIC RESPONSES

- Follow all instructions carefully.
- Provide all required documents.
- Give clear and specific answers.
- Review your application before submitting.
- Make sure that your project make sense to people who are not familiar with your work, your context and your organization.

2. CLEARLY EXPLAIN WHAT YOUR PROJECT'S UNIQUE VALUE IS, BASED ON ANALYSIS AND DATA

- Provide analysis on local context, issues and needs of marginalized women and girls in relation to violence against women and girls, supported by analysis, data and evidence.
- Explain why your project is relevant and why it will be effective.
- Highlight the critical gaps that your project will fill in your context.

3. OUTLINE YOUR ORGANIZATION'S EXPERTISE AND EXPERIENCE IN ADDRESSING VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN AND WHY IT'S BEST SUITED TO IMPLEMENT THE PROPOSED PROJECT

GENERAL WINDOW: ADDRESSING VIOLENCE AGAINST MARGINALIZED WOMEN AND GIRLS AND THOSE EXPERIENCING INTERSECTING FORMS OF DISCRIMINATION.

- Explain how your organization has experience and is equipped to work with the specific groups of marginalized women and girls you have selected.

SPECIAL WINDOW: ADDRESSING VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN AND GIRLS AFFECTED BY CRISIS.

- Explain how your organization has experience and is equipped to work with and respond to the specific groups of women and girls affected by crisis you have selected.

Remember to clearly explain throughout your proposal how you will contribute to the specific window you are applying to.

4. BE SPECIFIC

- Be specific about the groups of marginalized women and girls or groups of women and girls affected by crisis to be focused on, the forms of violence they face.
- Explain how the proposed strategies will meet their needs and address the violence they face.
- Do not try to address all forms of violence generically.
- Avoid selecting the maximum types of beneficiaries and forms of violence solely for the purpose of ticking as many boxes as possible.
- Clearly define your project's goal, expected results, and activities.
- Demonstrate a clear articulation of the results to be achieved, for and with whom, where and how, and for what ultimate goal.
 - Your project results should explain the overall change you wish to make through the project – the change in the lives of women and girls you want to see. For example: women and girls with disabilities in X place are better protected from intimate partner violence and are able to access post violence services by X.
 - Your strategies should include the ‘how’ or ‘what’ are you going to do to achieve the goal. For example, advocacy, trainings, prevention work to change social norms.

5. BE REALISTIC:

- Keep the project scope realistic, based on your experience/expertise and on your available resources. Avoid being over-ambitious.
- Ensure the budget aligns with your project scope and absorptive capacity of your organization.

6. ENSURE COHERENCE THROUGHOUT YOUR PROJECT CONCEPT:

- Ensure coherence between the problem analysis, the beneficiaries selected, the partner selected the forms of violence selected, the project's results and the project strategies.
- Ensure proposed activities/strategies contribute to expected results.

7. SAFETY, DIGNITY & WELL-BEING

- Explain how you will identify and mitigate risks to ensure the safe implementation of the project, including to ensure the safety, dignity and well-being of staff and beneficiaries.

8. PLAN FOR SYSTEMIC AND SUSTAINABLE IMPACT

- Articulate how your project will contribute to systemic change and long-term impact.
- Explain with concrete measures how the project will contribute to lasting change beyond the project's timeframe.

BUDGET TIPS

Complete Project Duration & Grant Amount Requested questions in Project Overview tab before proceeding to the Budget tab.

Suggested order for the budgeting process:

1) Start with Project Direct Activities

2) Proceed to complete Management Activities & budget for:

- category calculated against Total Amount Requested (Personnel)
- activities without budget ceilings (i.e.: Equipment)
- activity with a budget ceiling (Self/Collective care)
- categories with budget ceilings calculated against Total Project Direct Activities (General costs, Indirect cost, Core funds for Small Org.)

Make sure that Pending Amount to be allocated is 0

If all data seems to be correct but the Inspect button is still red, please click on Save button

Always refer to Annex 3: Budget Summary & Budget Guidelines & GMS Instructions documents for more information & guidance.
